“ In my book Paula was the best of everything. An amazing athlete that could have went Pro she was so stunning that she could have been a success in Hollywood. The thing I remember most was that infectious smile and laugh, her heart and kindness she exhibited everyday that blessed everyone. She was so good to me and believed in me I have never forgotten. Paula made a lasting impression on me. Im so sorry for her boys and grands to lose her here way too early. Everyone who knew her loved her, it's just who she was. Young men, your mom was the best of the best, I know you know that, we believed it also
