

Robert Craig Goolsby

September 2, 1971 - October 28, 2021

Mr. Robert Craig Goolsby passed away at his home at the age of 50 on October 28, 2021. He was born September 2, 1971 to Robert Goolsby and Sharon James Goolsby in Tippah County, MS. Craig was married to Nicole Robbins Goolsby, was a retired Construction Worker for Hill Brothers and was a member of the Ripley Presbyterian Church. He had a special love for animals, especially his German Shepherds and construction projects. He also loved doing community service and helping others like the work he did for Walnut Creek Presbyterian Church and other places. This was his way of giving back.

Craig is survived by his parents: Robert Goolsby and Sharon James Goolsby of Ripley, MS; his wife: Nicole Robbins Goolsby of Ripley, MS; his sister: Barbara Bullock (Bradley) of Ripley, MS; two nieces: Faith Diminick (Brad) of Kingsport, TN, Olivia Bullock of Ripley, MS.

Officiating will be Dr. Rev. Jody Hill and Mr. Bradley Bullock.

Pallbearers will be: Ronnie Ketchum, Bradley Bullock, Adam Robbins, Victor Rogers, Eduardo Rangel, Brent McBride.

Honorary Pallbearers will be: Ramone Rangel, Daniel Rangel, William Hall, John Baker, Ricky Milton.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Craig was always so sweet. We would always talk about his babies. He loved them so much. He also surprised me one day with a gift because I had served in the military. I will always treasure that gift especially now. He will be dearly missed.
