“ Roger and I go way back . if it had not been for him taking me in under his wing and helping me I would have never made it in Memphis . For many years he was and always will be my dear and best friend . I am sad to say that he and I had reached a place in our friendship that we never were able to get past and he went on to heaven thinking the things he was told were true and he and I didnt get a chance to fix that and mend our friendship . I know that now he is looking down and he knows the truth and that I was not the person I was made out to be . He has such a forgiving and loving heart and I am so glad that My son was able to grow up around him and that Roger helped mold my son into the man he is today . I never stopped loving you Roger and to me you will always be my mother , my friend , and someone I could believe and trust with my life . Thank you so much for the great memory's we made together and the time we shared . And thank you for helping me become the entertainer I became . I will always be grateful for the many doors you opened and helped me open threw my life . I miss you more than you could ever know and I am sorry for not proving myself like i should have to you when you ask me to . I didnt believe or fill i owed anyone anything at the time I only knew I lost my son because no one had faith or believed in me but me and everyone stood beside the person that at the time was only out to hurt me in every way so i believed . I am deeply sorry for not understanding and coming to you once I cleaned my act up and showing you like you ask me to . I will never forgive myself for that . Now you can see i did just as i said I did and have stayed this way all these years for myself as well as hopping o one day meet my son . Thank you for watching over him and for loving him as you did . You are an angel and now you have the wings to fly . You will always be in my heart and on my mind . Not a day passes now that I dont think of you and miss you . Good by my dear friend .Rest in peaceTill we meet again one day , I will keep your memory alive .

“ Roger sent my grandson Carter a crocheted blanket when he had leukemia. Baby Carter loved it! And all of us appreciated his kindness and generosity to our baby Carter (who is now 14 years old) so much. May God bless and comfort you all. Love, Marvel
