“ I have not seen Ron for many years but thought of him a lot. I worked with Ron in Memphis and he taught me a lot. When I decided to attend Mortuary School at Gupton-Jones in Atlanta, GA he got me a job there at the same place he worked as a student. Ron was a good man, I thought the world of him and enjoyed our talks. I am so sorry to hear of his passing, wish we had stayed in touch more. He will be missed forever by many.

“ Ron Hopkins taught me how to Embalm in 1992 during a year that He and I worked together at Memphis Funeral Home. We remained friends since that time! He was my friend and I will miss him! One time 20 years after we both worked together in Memphis Ronnie sent me 100.00 one Christmas and said "Bubba get you Steak Merry Christmas Ron"

“ I just found out that "Fiddling Ron" had died. I am so sorry I didn't know until yesterday. I would have most certainly had come to his service. I did my practice embalming under Ron at Memphis Funeral Home. We spent many an hour at the place on Union just he and I. He was so good to me, and a good teacher and friend. I still use a lot he taught me. I will cherish our time working together, and our dinners at Po Folks(his favorite at that time). He called me "Bubba and I called him "Fiddling Ron or Mr. Ron. he was a true professional and friend. I hate I just heard about this. We talked on the phone some, and i saw him on Terry Gentry's funeral. God speed Fiddling Ron, and thank you for everything.

“ When I knew Ronnie in the 70's, he did not drive. Many times I would pick him up to go play music. If I was bringing my wife, Ronnie would lean between the seats, and tell us about some new song he learned. He was gentleman, to be sure.

“ So sorry not to be able to visit family at this time of grief! Ronnie was a beautiful soul that meant so much to me and our Caviness family. It's ironic that those he has helped so much are unable to gather and celebrate his going home. Praying for you all. Hopefully we can gather soon!

“ Heaven's orchestra has a new lead violinist. And I can imagine, that Ron is teaching all the violinist to play fiddle, I bet he has the blue grass kicking, up there. Rest in the arms of God, my friend! You will be missed by all of us that knew you and loved you.

Ron was a true friend. Could eat more than anyone I have ever known. Loved to be among friends. Did not care a lot for strangers. My brother and I used to cook for his birthday party every year. His menu was what everybody wanted to eat and plenty of it. Invited all his close friends which were many. Was disappointed if you didn't show up. Rest In Peace Ron.

Ronnie was the first Kenny Baker type fiddle player I ever saw. He played "Denver Belle" the first time I ever heard it played. I thought that was the most beautiful tune I had ever heard. I still think that. I have thought of Ronnie a thousand times since that day. He told me the story on the fiddle he was playing, the one with the piece missing from the back side. I would guess that he made the same impression on everyone that met him for the first time as he did me. My sympathy to his family and his friends.
