

Ruth Anne Shackelford Vandygriff

May 28, 1946 - April 27, 2020

Ripley, MS - Ruth Anne Shackelford Vandygriff, 73, of Ripley, MS went to Heaven on April 27, 2020 at Tippah County Health and Rehabilitation related to complications from Alzheimer's Disease. Ruth Anne was born on May 28, 1946 in Memphis, TN to James and Maudie Lee Wells. She spent her childhood in Memphis and after her High School graduation she attended Blue Mountain College where she met and soon married Julian Mann Shackelford. She was passionate about her family, she loved antiques or "Junking" as she liked to call it, and she loved to laugh and cut up with her friends and family. She is well known for her abilities to win any card game and for her prankster activities. She loved seeing others laugh and smile. Ruth Anne was a member of Mt. View Baptist Church where she enjoyed attending with her son, Jr. She is survived by her daughter, Melissa Anne Pickens and husband David of Walnut, MS; four grandchildren: Catherine Pickens Michael and her husband Justin of Mantachie, MS, Zack and Case Pickens of Walnut, MS. She also left her "Best Girl Zadie-Elizabeth Pickens who could be found in bed with her making SnapChat pics, singing, watching TV and telling/keeping secrets. Smiles could always be found when they were together. She is also survived by four great-grandchildren: Jase, Eli, Bently and Abraham Michael all of Mantachie, MS; She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband: Julian Mann Shackelford, her son: Julian Mann Shackelford, Jr; and three brothers: George Wells, Charles Wells, and Perry Joe Wells.

A private graveside ceremony will be held at Rucker Cemetery in Ripley, MS. Honorary pallbearers are the nurses and CNA's of Tippah County Health and Rehabilitation that took such good care of "Our Ruthie" the last 4 years as we fought such a hard fight. You are all Blessings and have no idea how many lives that you touch. Love you all as you know "Ruthie" did too.
