

Sandra Delashmit

June 4, 2026

Sandra Sue Delashmit was born on June 30 in Trenton, Tennessee and passed away peacefully on June 4, 2026. She was preceded in death by twin girls Lena and Rita, her parents Josephine and Raymond Haire, brother Denzil Haire and husband Richard Keith Delashmit. She was stepmother to Amanda “Mandy” Delashmit and Angela Delashmit. She was a grandmother to Gabriel and Brandon Holt and to Violet, Dale, William, and Patrick Delashmit and great grandmother to Melanda and Rowan Holt. She and Richard share one daughter; Melissa Delashmit, a granddaughter-Rebecca Jackson, and a great granddaughter-Ruby Hopkins. She is also survived by a son, Michael Daniels and two sisters, Maryanne Daniels (Gill) and Caroline Haire. Sandra has been the longtime life partner to Jerry “Steve” Thomas and she was the stepmother to Christina Thomas and grandmother to Connor and Ryder. Sandra was a firecracker. She didn’t mind saying exactly what was on her mind. She always wanted to take care of the people around her. She had a strong sense of injustice, and would often speak her mind to anyone who she felt was doing someone else wrongly. She was very kind hearted to animals and became the caregiver in her last years to the homeless neighborhood cats. She and Steve shared pet parenthood to their baby “Peanut” but everyone, even she, knew Steve is his favorite. Mom loved her and Steve’s “Bill paying day” and she loved to clean house and do laundry. I know that her close family members will always grin every time they start a load of laundry
