“ Oh the memories we have. She was truly a character that brought so much fun in everything. I love Sharon and I am so happy God blessed me with our friendship. I know without a doubt she is finally well and keeping them entertained in Heaven. I am praying for you all. I love you with all my heart. God bless and be with you today. Forever my friends.

“ Extending deepest sympathies to the family of Sharon. We worked together many years ago at Silver Cross Hospital. As a new nurse I learned many things from the LPNs and CNAs that I worked with. After retiring in 2014 I was happy to reconnect with Sharon on FB! God bless all, Peggy Williamson Yasko
