“ My heart and a special prayer go out now to the family and friends of this dear lady. May God send Angels to comfort the hearts that are heavy and lift the weight of the burdens grief brings with it. I ask that the parents be especially held tight and carried along this path no parent is ever ready for.

I pray for he children and grand-children left behind. May her husband find comfort in these she will forever live in. Bless them all Father. Remind them of Romans 8:28 that they might KNOW that ALL things work TOGETHER for those that LOVE you and are called according to YOUR purpose. I also ask that you bring to mind Proverbs 3:5 and 6 as we remember that your ways are not our ways. Our understanding is not yet complete. And, if we fall upon the path you have set our feet upon, we can rest in peace knowing you have appointed Angels over us to lift us up.

Such a blessing we have had given to us and even now we are forever blessed with sweet memory and smiles forever. Thank you so much Staci Layne.

Mrs. Staci was one of the sweetest ladies I have ever met . She always wore a beautiful smile for everyone she met. She never met a stranger and she had a heart of gold. May she rest now for her journey here is done. No more pain . Gone but never forgotten 🙏

“ Staci was one of my sweetest friends. I was lucky enough to share many childhood memories with her since we went to church together. Looking back now, all I see is her smile. She remained a friend as we got older, always encouraging me and sharing her faith to help me in difficult times. I know where Staci is today for sure. My prayers are with all her family, she will surely be missed. Bless you all.
