

Sue Wooley Graves

January 4, 1933 - May 14, 2023

Sue Wooley Graves, 90 years old, of Snow Lake Mississippi was received into the arms of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ on 5/14/23 after a long illness. She was born on 1/4/33 in Faulkner, MS. After several years in Memphis, TN, she returned to Benton County.

She was an active member of Ashland Baptist Church up until the time her illness progressed.

She was a devoted Christian and used the Bible as a guide to her daily life.

She was also very involved in the Snow Lake Shores Community. She participated in most local activities, thus supporting the growth and improvement of the Community she so loved.

She will be remembered for her kindness, compassion, and willingness to help others in need or less fortunate. She was an avid gardener, evident by the numerous clippings and small plants that she shared with neighbors.

The Memphis Tiger Basketball Team has lost one of their biggest fans, as Sue traveled to Memphis for the home games while her health allowed. She traveled as far as Hawaii to support her Tigers!

She was preceded in death by her parents, Rebecca Watts Jackson and Jody Jackson, her brothers Joe Jackson, Bobby Jackson, and Jake Jackson, as well as, her daughter Rebecca Bledsoe, and her first husband Jimmie Wooley.

Her memory will forever be a blessing to her husband, CY Graves, as they shared 19 years of love, happiness, and friendship. She is also survived by her children Larry (Claudia) Wooley of Jackson, TN, Becky (Don) Daugherty of Memphis TN, Joey (Angela) Graves of Hernando, MS, and Mike (Debbie) Graves of Little Rock AR. In addition to many nieces and nephews, she leaves her loving memory to cherish for 9 grandchildren, 11 great grandchildren, and 5 great-great grandchildren.

Officiating: Pastor Joe McIntyre will officiate.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Snow Lake Shores Freedom Park Fund, in honor of Sue Graves.

The family wishes to express heartfelt gratitude to Legacy Hospice for their professionalism, dedication, and compassion.
