

Tammy Lockhart

October 8, 1963 - September 15, 2025

With deep love and gratitude, we celebrate the life of Tammy Lockhart, a devoted mother, grandmother, sister, and friend whose love and presence shaped the lives of everyone she held dear. She adored her children and grandchildren, making every moment with them a priority—whether it was birthdays, ballgames, school events, or simple family gatherings. She was the heart of her family, holding everyone together with her strength, warmth, and unconditional love. Her greatest joy was being present for all that her family did, and her legacy of love will remain in their hearts forever.

Her adventurous spirit led her to travel the world and embrace life to its fullest. She found joy in new experiences, laughter in unexpected places, and beauty in every corner of the world. Yet no matter where she went, her heart was always with her family.

Professionally, she followed a true calling as a Special Education teacher. With endless patience, compassion, and dedication, she impacted the lives of countless students and families. For her, teaching was more than a career—it was a gift she poured her heart into, leaving a mark on every child she worked with.
