“ We are so sad to hear of T.C.'s passing. Malcolm and he hunted squirrels and scouted ball games together many times. He was such a wonderful, dependable friend. One special memory is of eating rabbit that he prepared with his special (probably secret) recipe. I didn't think I would ever eat rabbit until I tasted his. He will leave a void that cannot be filled...he certainly left quite a legacy. We pray that wonderful memories and God's loving arms will bring comfort in the coming days. You will be in our thoughts and prayers.
