“ Hello Aunt Sandra, sorry I didn't get get to write before uncle Wayne passed away but I wanted you to know that I loved both of you very much and I will be writing and keeping in touch alot more than I did in the past and if you need anything just let me know. He was a good man and he will be missed greatly on this earth just as my dad is but God has got another great angel at his side preparing a place for us when we are ready to go. Tell all of uncle wayne children and yours that he's preparing our place now and will always be watching over us. love you aunt Sandra you take care and we'll talk soon
